BUSINESS-TO-BUYER PROCUREMENT LUNCHEON HELPS SMALL BUSINESSES GROW THEIR CLIENT BASE & SALES REVENUE

MEDI's Business-to-Buyer Procurement Luncheons help small businesses learn contracting opportunities and prime contractors/major purchasers identify small businesses that are ready, willing and able Hopkinsville, Kentucky. On Thursday, May 5 at noon MEDI will host Rogers Group, Inc. as Gary Johnson presents to small businesses about how to do business with them, procurement and subcontracting opportunities, especially at the Fort Campbell installation and throughout the regional offices. Rogers Group, Inc. is a multi-million dollar revenue producing corporation that seeks to do business with small, minority and women-owned businesses. Rogers Group, Inc. has contracts at Fort Campbell and have constructed many western Kentucky highways, such as the Breathitt Parkway expansion to Interstate 24 (I-24).

The Business-to-Buyer Procurement Luncheon is open to all businesses and organizations. Registration of $15 is required, but free for Movers & Shakers, and includes lunch. Registration deadline is Wednesday, May 4. To register, participants must contact MEDI at 270-885-8885, email info@medisuccess.org, website www.medisuccess.org, or visit 1101A South Main St., Hopkinsville, Ky.

Business-to-Buyer Procurement Luncheons goal is 1) to increase local and regional small business' opportunities to sell their goods and services and 2) to improve buyers' knowledge of small, minority, and women-owned businesses throughout Western Kentucky that are ready, willing and able to meet their business needs. All businesses looking for new clients and business opportunities should attend.
